

“If you don’t know where you are going, you will probably end up somewhere else.”
Lawrence J Peter

What do you think this quote means? Write it out in your own words below:

How could this quote help you?

Brainstorm some things you could do to help keep you going in the right direction...