

Common Shakespeare Phrases 2

In the left column below you can see a collection of phrases and sayings found in William Shakespeare's writings and still in common use today. Find out and write the meaning of each phrase in the right column.

in stitches
in the twinkling of an eye lie low
love is blind
make your hair stand on end more fool you
much ado about nothing
woe is me
night owl
send him packing
the game is up
too much of a good thing
up in arms
vanish into thin air
wear your heart on your sleeve seen better days
wild goose chase	